index

source:

au = audience-recorded

bt = bootleg (lp/dolp)

cd = bootleg on compact disc; were legally available on the grey market some years ago.

dm = demotape from band

dt = digital recording DAT

fm = radio-broadcast

md = rec. directly from mixing desk

tv = television-sound-recorded

quality ratings:

exc = hervorragend

- excellent

10,5 = sehr gut (fast exc)

- very good (almost exc)

10 = sehr gut

- very good

9,5 = gut

- good

9 = hörbar für enthusiasten

- listenable; only for freaks

8,5 = schlecht

- bad

8 = sehr schlecht; schade fürs vynil/band etc.

- very bad

generation:

xxx(o) means mastertape. xxx(1) is the 1st copy of the master, xxx(2) the copy of an xxx(1) and so on.

c = digital copy - 'clones'

these recordings are not for sale. if someone absolutely has got to have a livetape (not without reason: some of them are really rare and brilliant and a nice thing to add to a collection of official releases of one of the bands) contact us : live@subwave.com but remember: bootlegs are forbidden in most countries, even when lots of the listed bands like them. unable to make copies from DAT (dt.xyz - numbers) or copies to DAT (clones) at the time.
